Descendants of Thomas Edwards of Staunton Harold

Generation 1

This document is unfinished, Please contact me with corrections and additions.

1. THOMAS[1] EDWARDS was born about 1753 in Leicestershire, England (May not have been born Leicestershire - needs further evidence). He died in Oct 1837 in Staunton Harold, Leicestershire, England (Ropers Hill Farm). He married Frances Shakespeare, daughter of William Shakespeare and Frances Kendrick, on 04 Dec 1774 in Parish Church, Coleorton, Leicestershire, England. She was born in 1754 in Coleorton, Leicestershire, England. She died on 17 Mar 1844 in Staunton Harold, Leicestershire, England.

Notes for Thomas Edwards:
Thomas' parentage is unknown at this point. There was a family of Edwards residing in the Parish of Ashby de la Zouch at the turn of the 1700's - a Will was recorded in 1724 for a Thomas Edwards of Ashby - he may have been the grandfather of our Thomas but this is speculation. There is also a baptism 8 June 1758 in Coleorton for a Thomas Edwards (son of Richard Edwards and Elizabeth Berrisford) which may relate to our Thomas as his marriage to Frances Shakespear took place in the same Parish, again, this is speculation, but there does not seem to be another Thomas Edwards in this area at that time that would fit the birthdate of 1753/4 - I have checked the Parishes of Breedon, Ashby, Osgathorpe, Colerton and Worthington. The Richard in question was buried at Coleorton 1762; There is also a questionable settlement examination at Ashby for a John Edwards from North Wales who could also have a connection to Thomas.

Occupation: farmer & publican (Peter & Paul Inn) In 1810 Thomas is recorded on the Land Tax Records. He died on 29th October 1837 aged 84. James Edwards, son, present at death, Staunton Harold, Breedon Parish. Thomas Edwards left Will dated 27 Oct 1830, Staunton Harold.
The property, Ropers Hill farm 23 acres, left to his youngest son, James, whom he is now living with: also the "Peter & Paul Inn".

Notes for Ann Edwards:
No Baptism available in IGI.

Ann's Father was Thomas Edwards, a farmer who ran the Roper's Hill Farm and the Peter & Paul Inn at Lount/Staunton Harold. Her mother was Frances Shakespeare who was from a long line of farming families around the Lount/Coleorton/Staunton Harold area of Leicestershire ~ her ancestors of 1500's Mansfield are said to be connected with the Shakespeare's of Wroxall who are connected to William Shakespeare but that has not been confirmed by evidence.

Ann is mentioned in her father's Will.

Thomas Edwards (Father) left Will dated 27 Oct 1830, Staunton Harold.
The property, Ropers Hill farm 23 acres, left to his youngest son, James, whom he is now living with: also the "Peter & Paul Inn".

Notes for John Tivey:
Birth in Melbourne Derbyshire abt 1791 (From burial age) The (probable) son of Edward Tivey & Mary Fairbrother. There is still no concrete evidence to PROVE that he is the Son of Edward who married Mary Fairbrother ~ However, John has strong links with Joseph Tivey born c 1794 Melbourne. Both he and John married Aunt & Neice Ann Edwards & Mary Edwards at Breedon on the Hill and both resided in Staunton Harold and Worthington pre 1841 census ~ christening records suggest that Joseph's first 4 children were born whilst he was a farm labourer at Staunton Harold before moving on to Worthington pre 1828. John's first 4 children were also born there. There are removal order papers for John & Ann and all their children dated 1823 in Melbourne and 1824 in Derby Hills suggesting that their Parish was Staunton Harold, they then appear to have settled in Worthington where their next 5 children were christened. We know from evidence of Joseph's second marriage (after 1837 registration) that his father was Edward, husbandman. There is also evidence in the 1851 census that Mary daughter of Joseph is living with her aunt Catherine Tivey (nee Dent, wife of Thomas Tivey b 1780 Melbourne) I believe this ties Thomas & Joseph as brothers of John and therefore sons of Edward Tivey. There are also strong links with Fairbrother families in both Melbourne and Breedon/Staunton Harold which also tie in with links to John's wife's family The Edwards and Shakespeares of the Breedon area.

Whilst some researchers state that John born 1783 as the son of Edward there is absolutely no evidence to prove this theory or that of John's brother William who both resided in Shepshed. There are apprenticeship papers for William Tivey that state he was the orphaned child of Thomas & Mary Tivey, apprenticed out to William Hallam, Frame Work Knitter of Sheepshead (Shepshed). This is the ONLY evidence to suggest the parentage of the Shepshed Tivey 'brothers' There is not one connection with the Fairbrother families at all. It is thought that Thomas, father of this William & John, was the brother of Edward, husbandman. There is no evidence of their mother Mary's maiden name.

Generation 2 (con't)

1823 John & Ann and their five children attempted to move back to John's birthplace Melbourne, Derbyshire. The Poor Law prevented them from doing this as John had chosen to take up Ann's place of birth as their Settlement Township, after their marriage in 1811 Breedon on the Hill the couple settled in Staunton Harold. Removal order papers dated 11th April 1823, read - To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Township of Melbourne in the County of Derby, and to the Church-wardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Township of Staunton Harold in the County of Leicester.

Whereas Complaint hath been made unto us, whose Names are hereunto set, and seals affiexed, being two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the County of DERBY aforesaid, (one whereof being the Quorum) by the Church-wardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said Township of Melbourne in that John Tivey, Ann his wife, and their five childen, namely, Thomas aged eleven years, Frances aged nine years, Jane seven years, James four years and Mary one year, lately intruded and came into the said township of Melbourne and are actually beome chargeable to the same; We the said Justices, upon due proof made thereof, was well upon the Examination of the said, John Tivey and also Francis Dallman upon Oath, as other Circumstances, do adjudge the same to be true and do also adjudge the Place of legal Settlement of the siad John Tivey, Ann his wife and Thomas, Frances, Jane, James and Mary his said five children to be in the Township of Staunton Harold in the County of Leicesters;

These are therefore in his Majesty's Name to require you the said Church-wardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said Township of Melbourne on Sight hereof, to remove and convey the said John Tivey, Ann his wife, and Thomas, Frances, Jane, James and Mary their said children from and out of the said Township of Melbourne to the said Township of Staunton Harold and Here deliver unto the Church-wardens and Overseers of the Poor there, or to some or one of them, together with this our order, or a true Copy thereof, who are hereby required to recieve and provide for them according to Law.

In 1824 Removal Papers were once again granted, this time to the Overseers of the Poor of the Township of Derby Hills dated 10th December 1824. The papers are identical to the ones mentioned above, except they name John Tivey, his wife Ann and children Thomas aged thirteen, Frances aged ten, Jane eight, James six, Mary two years and Joseph aged 4 months. This time the Justices granted the removal of John & his family from Derby Hills (a small hamlet close to Melbourne) to Staunton Harold.

66. JOHN[4] TIVEY (Thomas[3], Ann[2] Edwards, Thomas[1] Edwards) was born in 1850 in Belton, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. He died before 1886 in or in 1907 Very Mysterious. He married Fanny Newbold in Jun 1871 in Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire, England. She was born in 1847 in Breedon on the Hill, Leicestershire, England. She died on 02 Oct 1918 in Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire, England.

Notes for John Tivey:
John is a bit of a mystery man ~ his birth was registered in Loughborough, Sept Qtr 1850 (Volume 15 Page 141) he is aged 10 months on the 1851 census, but there is also another John registered in Loughborough in Dec Qtr (Volume 15 Page 144) This other birth may be another John Tivey but there are no other John's of that age listed in the 1851 & 1861 census. When his daughter Emma married in 1894 he is listed as deceased, yet his death is not registered until 1907 in Osgathorpe, aged 57. He does not appear in his Father Thomas' Will dated 1882 and his wife Fanny remarried in 1886 as a Spinster! He does not appear in any other census apart from 1851-1871. He may have change his name, been abroad or in prison;

John cannot be found in the 1881 census, he was a Railway Labourer so could have been away with work. His wife Fanny is in Worthington, listed as a married Grocer with three of her children. His "wife" Fanny remarried in 1886 Leicester, to Joseph Huner, a man several years her junior. There isn't a death registered between 1871-1886 that would match John. Fanny listed herself as a "Spinster" on her marriage to Joseph, it is not known whether the couple were divorced.

A death certificate dated 1907 shows a death for a John Tivey aged 57 in Osgathorpe, Leicestershire, of pneumonia, certified by Sarah Ann Tivey, Neice, Sarah Ann was the wife of John's Nephew Edward Tivey (1867) who also resided in Osgathorpe. It is a mystery as to why he was listed as deceased on his daughter's marriage certificate and that he wasnt mentioned in his father's Will. He may have served time in prison or in the armed forces.

Notes for James Gates:
James Gates 1850-1930 His Story by Great Grand Daughter Janis Maynard (Contact May 2009)

James Gates was born on the 20th June 1850 in the parish of Lower Beeding (Colgate)
He was the son of George and Sarah Gates, nee Shoubridge. He worked as a gardener at Holmbush House. On the 25th April 1874 he married Eunice Bridger at St Saviour's Church, Colgate. He was 25, she was 29.

Eunice, the daughter of William Bridger was born on 21st July in 1845 at Rudgwick, Sx. It is not known how they met; perhaps she was in service at Holmbush. Six years later they had their first (surviving?) child, Caroline (born 10.2.1880). Their second daughter, Alice was born three years later (13.6.1883). Their third child, William George was born on 17.4.1885. Sadly William died 9 months later on 6.3.1886. Their only surviving son, Arthur was born four years after that on the 5th December1888. Eunice was 35 when she gave birth to her first child and 43 when she had her last.

The family lived in Hollinbush Lodge, the gatehouse of Holmbush House on the Faygate Rd, James working as a gardener and Eunice opening the gates to the Clifton-Brown family as they drove up to the 'big house' in their carriages. Eunice may also have helped in the 'big house'. During this time Arthur certainly attended school, first in the 'iron school' situated on a piece of land between The Cherry Tree and Roffey Road level crossing which originally was a church, consecrated in 1856 before St Saviour's Church was built in 1878, later at the school in Colgate. It seems safe to assume that the two older girls also attended these schools.

www.tivey-family-tree.com

In 1894 there must have been an outbreak of diphtheria in the Faygate/Colgate area. Eunice nursed the children 'at the big house', Arthur also caught the disease. The children survived but Eunice died on 27th July aged 49. James, aged 44 was left with three children, Caroline, 14, Alice, 9 and Arthur aged 6.

Not surprisingly four years later, on the 25th August 1898 James remarried at St Saviour's Church, Colgate. His second wife was Frances Tivey, born in 1860 in Burton on Trent. She was 38 and James was now 49. Frances had been a nurse and they had met when James was in hospital. William James their eldest son was born on the 24th September 1899. In 1901 the family were living in Carylls Cottages, Faygate. James was still working as a gardener for the Brown family. Caroline and Alice were both in service. Caroline was working as a Cook for 76-year-old Mr John Cole, a mercantile clerk who lived in Cheam Rd, Westfield, Sutton near Epsom in Surrey. Alice was a housemaid in a large staff working for a Mr William Campion, a stockbroker living at Rowlands, in Roffey. Arthur had started his career in the Post Office, working as a messenger at Rusper Post Office.

James and Frances had three more children: Frances Mary Ashley born on the 30th July 1901, in 1902 their second son Edward George was born on 17th July 1902, sadly this baby, like William George from James's first marriage, failed to live. The baby died on 13th April 1903 aged only 10 months. Leonard Ernest was born on the 2nd February1906. This baby completed the family. Frances was 39 when she had her first child and 46 when she had her last.

In 1911 the family are living in Colgate, possibly in Laurel Cottage. James, aged 61 is still working as a domestic gardener. Only the three children of the second family are still at home. James describes them as 'Willie, Sissie and Lennie'. By this time Caroline had emigrated to New Zealand and Arthur had joined the Royal Sussex Regiment and was in India. Alice was in service as a lady's maid to Cecile Drury at 22, Cliveden Place, Belgravia Frances died on the 13th August 1919 aged 59. James aged 69, was widowed for a second time. Cis was 18 and Len was 13. At first Cis kept house but then Alice returned from her job 'in service' to take over the housekeeping, sending Cis into service.

James died in The Homeopathic Hospital Great Ormond Street on the 27th December 1929 aged 79 years old. The cause of death was 'sarcoma of the knee' and 'myocarditis' His treatment in this hospital was paid for by the Clifton- Brown family. He was buried at St Saviour's Colgate. Colonel Brown was in London at the time of his funeral and arrived back in Colgate as the funeral was taking place. 18.01.2006 After an appeal in the Leicestershire Mercury for Tivey Family members to get in touch (published 24.12.2005) I was contacted by a Lady named Francis Mary Tivey from Leicester.

She said she had read my article and wanted to tell me what she knew, which wasnt much (according to her!). She told me her parents had several children that died at birth or in infancy and she talked about Reginald who died of complications with Crohn's disease when he was quite young.
Her Mother Hannah died when she was just 5 years old and her father never remarried. When she was 16 she decided she did not want to spend her life on a farm so she became a Missionary and travelled about helping other people. She then qualified as an army engineer. She never married although she was nearly tempted into marrying a German Prisoner of War whose family owned a factory in Germany and he wanted to take care of her!

Her father Thomas Tivey (son of John & Fanny) inherited a farm named Drift Farm in Blackfordby Leicestershire via his Step Father Joseph Huner and his Son who died in his early 20's. She only knew her family history back to her grandad John Tivey and wasnt really interested in learning more about them, because she left the area to get away from it all. Although she was living in Leicester area at the moment. She said she had had a good life and had seen a fair bit of the world but was now rather ill and knew she didnt have much time left - she was suffering badly with diabetes and is waiting to go into sheltered accomodation - she visited a centre run by the Salvation Army where she was picked up and dropped off at her home and enjoyed a good meal that was prepared for her.

Francis seemed a nice but firm lady who has lived her life as she wanted - quite independent of others but also quite passionate about helping others, I enjoyed talking to her. Jan Tivey (nee Wilde)

BURNING FATALITY IN BURTON

At the Gladstone Inn, Wood Street, Burton this afternoon Dr JH Joy, coroner, opened a inquiry concerning the death of Sidney Herbert Tivey aged 4 years and 8 months, the son of William and Jessie Tivey of 23 Wood Street, who died on Wednesday from shock. The result of burns sustained on Saturday morning.

William Tivey, postman, of 23 Wood Street identified the deceased who he said was his son.
On Sunday morning at about 7am he and his wife were in bed when they heard screams coming from the kitchen. He ran downstairs and seeing his child's cotton shirt in flames he grabbed hold of him and rolled him on the rug extinguishing the flames.
He then dressed the wounds with flour and summoned assistance and placed linseed oil and water on the burns.
His daughter, Edith, age 11 years, was with the deceased and said that he picked up a lighted candle from the table when his shirt caught fire.

He did not know his children were downstairs as they were not sent down to light the fire, but his wife generally left her in charge of the baby while she lit it.

Dr Frohwen said that between eight and nine o'clock on Sunday he was called to see the deceased. The child was bandaged up, but as it did not appear in pain he did not disturb it, except to see the burns. The child was in a collapsed state. A nurse was called from the Nursing institution and a witness saw that fresh bandages were put on. The child died on Wednesday from shock.

The coroner said that the father had done his upmost for the child and it was a case in which they should return a verdict of accidental death. Happily, these burning cases were not so frequent in Burton as they were at one time.

The jury returned a verdict of 'accidental death'.

Death certificate: Died 30 November 1904 at 23 Wood Street, Burton on Trent, Sidney Herbert Tivey aged 4 years and eight months, son of William Tivey, a Postman, Cause of death: Shock and Collapse following burns accidently inflicted, Certiicate issued by Cornoer J Holmes after Inquest 02 December 1904; Ernest Arnold, Registrar
