Descendants of Thomas Tivey

Generation 1

1. THOMAS[1] TIVEY was born about 1749 in Derbyshire, England. He died in 1795 in Derbyshire, England. He married MARY.

Notes for Thomas Tivey:
There are two possible marriages for Thomas - the first in Ravenstone, Leicestershire 1791 in which case his wife was Mary Page, the second in Calke 1794 to Mary Jackson, neither marriage would have been late enough to be the mother of John (Born 1782) which speculates that the father of William was previously married.

Thomas & Mary could have had other children, not traceable at this point. Apart from his birth, the only other record available is that of the Apprenticeship Record of his younger son William after his death dated 1803. The record gives an account of William being orphaned and apprenticed out to William Hallam of Shepshed a Frame Work Knitter. John may have been the half brother or full brother of William. They were most definitely related, both married Heatherley sisters, both resided in Shepshed.

Possible Burial Mebourne Baptist Church, November 1795

Thomas Tivey and Mary had the following children:

2. i. JOHN[2] TIVEY was born about 1783 in Derbyshire, England. He died in Dec 1831 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. He married Ann Heatherley on 24 Oct 1825 in St Botolph's Parish Church, Shepshed, Leicestershire, England. She was born about 1805 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. She died in 1876 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England.

3. ii. WILLIAM TIVEY was born about 1793 in Melbourne, Derbyshire, England. He died on 28 Jan 1845 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. He married Elizabeth Heatherley on 28 Aug 1816 in Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire, England. She was born about 1792 in Newcastle Upon Tyne, Northumberland, England. She died in Aug 1872 in Diseworth, Leicestershire, England.

were brothers. There is no clue whatsoever as to the identity of their parents. These said Tivey's were John born about 1783 and William born 1793 in Melbourne Derbyshire. L F Tivey 1973.

Since this statement has been made, Apprentice Papers for William Tivey (said to be the 'brother' of John) have been discovered at the Records Office in Matlock Derbyshire. These state that William was an orphan (parents being Thomas & Mary Tivey deceased) He was apprenticed out to William Hallam, a Framework Knitter of Sheepshead (Shepshed) Leicestershire in 1803. It is still unknown as to whether John was the brother of William, but William was a witness to the wedding of John Tivey and Ann Heatherley. J A Tivey 2007.

He died in Oct 1897 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England.

ii. CHARLES TIVEY was born about 1827 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England.

Notes for Charles Tivey:
Charles is a bit of a mystery. There isnt a Christening for him or a death but he appears on the 1841 census as 14 years of age with his mother Ann Danvers (nee Tivey nee Heatherley) and his 'sisters' Mary & Jane as well as step brothers & sisters. At first it was thought that he could have been Ann's nephew (Son of William & Elizabeth Tivey) BUT there is also a Charles aged 10 with William in the Loughborough workhouse in 1841, thought to be William's son

No further trace after 1841 unless he is the Charles that married Ann.

Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. She married (1) CHARLES CORAH in 1857 in Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. He was born in 1832 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. He died in 1895 in Belton, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. She married (2) JOHN HADDEN on 13 Oct 1850 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. He was born in 1831 in Waterford, Ireland. He died in 1856 in Leicestershire, England.

3. WILLIAM[2] TIVEY (Thomas[1]) was born about 1793 in Melbourne, Derbyshire, England. He died on 28 Jan 1845 in Shepshed, Loughborough, Leicestershire, England. He married Elizabeth Heatherley on 28 Aug 1816 in Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire, England. She was born about 1792 in Newcastle Upon Tyne, Northumberland, England. She died in Aug 1872 in Diseworth, Leicestershire, England.

Notes for William Tivey:
Whilst some researchers state that William and John (born 1783) was the son of Edward Tivey & Mary Fairbrother, there is absolutely no evidence to prove this theory. This was the statement made by Frank Tivey in his initial research carried out in the late 1960's early 1970's. Since this statement was made, I have discovered apprenticeship papers for William Tivey in the Parish Poor Law Papers of Melbourne, Derbyshire, that state he was the orphaned child of 'the late' Thomas & Mary Tivey, apprenticed out to William Hallam, Frame Work Knitter of Sheepshead (Shepshed). These papers were dated 1803. This is the ONLY evidence to suggest the parentage of the Shepshed Tivey 'brothers or cousins' There is not one connection with the Fairbrother families within Melbourne or nearby Breedon at all. It is thought that Thomas, father of this William (& perhaps this John), was the brother of Edward Tivey (who married Mary Fairbrother), husbandman. There is no definite evidence of Mary's maiden name to date, there were two Thomas Tivey's of roughly the same age at that time, one married Mary Page 1791 at Ravenstone Leicestershire he would probably be the one who fathered William but he could have previously been married (and thus fathered John earlier). the other Thomas (thought to be the son of William Tivey and Elizabeth Clemens) married Mary Jackson at Calke in 1795 and died in 1806. As the apprenticeship papers dated 1803 state that William was the son "of the late" Thomas Tivey, this would point to the former Thomas being his father (i.e. Thomas Tivey born 1749 died 1795, the son of Thomas Tivey and Jame Johnson and husband of Mary Page)

William was the first Tivey to appear in the Shepshed Parish registers with the christenings of the children of he and his wife Elizabeth Heatherley, his 'brother' John appeared sometime later, although older than William his marriage was much later than John's and William was a witness.

15 June 1872 - Tamworth Herald - Article -
ASHBY-DE-LA-ZOUCH - Petty Sessions, Saturday, June 8th, [Before Major MOWBRAY and H E Smith Esq.] Jas Tivey, of Whitwick, Tailor, was charged by Sarah Burton (wife of Geo. Burton) with having assaulted her at Whitwick on the 9th May - Mr Dewes appeared on behalf of Mrs Burton - Mrs Burton siad the defendant is a tailor in my husband's employ, and on the day in question he was about taking a female who was formerly in my husband's employ into the workroom when I stopped him, and from what I said the young woman returned home. The defendant then commenced to abuse and beat me with his fist about my side, breasts and back, and I was stupified and could hardly get my breath from the violence of his blows. I went and showed Mrs Whitcroft, who is a neighbour, the state i was in, and she also saw the state my body was in from the blows. Mrs Whitcroft said that on the day in question, Mrs Burton came to her and showed her her breat and back, which were very much swollem and red, as if she had been recently beaten, and that she saw her again afterwards and they were quite black - The defendant called the young woman in question and Mrs Burton's husband, but as neither of these witnesses saw the assault their evidence was of no consequence - Fined £1 1s and the costs, or one months hard labour.

NOTE: Cause of death - Syncope = Fainting or passing out, frequently called syncope in a medical context, is a sudden, and generally momentary, loss of consciousness, or blacking out caused by the Central Ischaemic Response, because of a lack of sufficient blood and oxygen in the brain. Central ischaemic response is the brain's response to a chronic lack of blood available to the brain. The brain attempts to prioritise its own needs above any others by commandeering all available blood flow at the expense of all other bodily functions and increasing the rate of blood oxygenation. In age, can be also linked to hemmorhage in the Brain (Stroke), causing sudden death;

Notes for Edward Tivey:

Born Jan 1835 according to US Census; The ONLY Tivey christening at St Botolph's Parish Church in Shepshed was that of his younger brother (also Edward) who was christened on the same day as his death in 1833; Many burials for the Tivey's took place at St Botolph's -and St Boltoph's at that time was the only church with a burial ground. Edward was actually Baptized at All Saints Church in Loughborough, Leicestershire - The Parish Register actually states that he was 6 years old - 10th December 1841, Father William a Framework Knitter, Mother Elizabeth residence the Union Workhouse Loughborough, from Sheepshed - his siblings Jane (aged 11) Mary Ann (aged 4) were also baptized on the same day.

1841 England Census - To date Edward cannot be found: His father William and siblings Charles, Jane and Mary Ann all live in the Loughborough District Workhouse (Source Citation: Class: HO107; Piece 595; Book: 11; Civil Parish: Loughborough; County: Leicestershire;

*The 1900 US Federal Census states that Edward Emigrated in 1857 - Information from his great Nephew John Tivey (Letter dated August 11th 1970) States that his Great Uncle "Ted" was a member of the "Queens Army" who deserted his post to fight in the American Civil War for the North. To date there is evidence that Edward did take part in the Civil War but there is no evidence that he joined Queen Victoria's Army - (NOTE - this does not prove that he wasn't a member of the army - very few army records of this period still exist in England) Despite extensive searching he does not appear on any ship manifesto for emigration for either Canada nor America to date:

Mrs. Deatlor M. Tivey wife of Edward Tivey, 59 Blossom Street, Lynn, Massachusetts, died suddenly and unexpectedly this morning, at 7:20 AM, while the household was about to prepare for their customary morning duties, and a painful shock was given to her children. Heart failure is supposed to have been the cause of her death, but up to the time of writing medical examiner Pinkham's opinion had not been ascertained. Sunday evening Mrs. Tivey was around the house as usual and nothing wrong was noticed until this morning when she complained of cramps. It was not long after she groaned several times. At this, her husband became alarmed, and on examination found that she was dying. Before assistance could be obtained, she was beyond human aid. Mrs. Tivey was a native of New Brunswick, Canada and next April would have reached her 60th year. She was the wife of Edward Tivey, a maker

The Following addtional material was kindly provided by Mr Richard Herbert Tivey, Great Grandson of James William Tivey:-

James was committed to the Salem Massachusetts Essex County Jail on July 23, 1928 for chronic drunkenness and died there on July 25, 1928. He was a small men of five foot seven inches tall and weighed only 145 lbs. His life and that of his family was most difficult and must have seemed to him to have no purpose. He was buried in Pine Grove Cemetery Lynn, Massachusetts at 198 Red Oak Avenue:

Born on 18 June 1868 in Needham, Massachusetts. James William died in Salem, Massachusetts, on 25 Jul 1928; he was 60. Undertaker: W.C. Goodrich. Buried on 27 Jul 1928 in Lynn, Massachusetts. In 1891 his home is listed as 58 Marianna Street; 1892 home is 15 Mt. Pleasant Place; 1894-1897 home is listed as Broad Street Place and gives his work address as 8 Market Street. In 1898 his home is 145 New Chatham Street which is changed to Eutaw Avenue in 1903. He works at 7 Munroe Street, then in 1909 he is a weaver at 205 Oxford Street for Curtis & Spindell. William from 1906 until his death in 1928 pertaining to his arrests. The record states that he was 5 foot 7 inches tall, dark complexion, and worked for Curtis and Spindell, Lynn, Massachusetts. William James died two days after being incarcerated in the Salem Massachusetts House of Correction, of alcohol poisoning. He was fermenting garbage at the dump with some of his friends and made methyl instead of ethyl alcohol. Front Page Story, Wednesday, July 25, 1928 Salem, Massachusetts: - William Tizzy (Misspelled - see death notice same day in the middle page of newspaper) 61, of Lynn, Massachusetts was found dead in his cell at the Salem, Massachusetts Jail today. He was sentenced from Lynn, Monday on a charge of drunkenness. Death was believed due to alcoholic poisoning.

William J. Tivey of 10 Olive Street, Lynn, Massachusetts, 60 years. Funeral Services will be held at the W.C. Goodrich Funeral Home, 128 Washington Street, Lynn, Massachusetts on Friday, at 2 PM. Relatives and friends invited. After James William's burial, he was exhumed on December 11, 1939 and moved to 62 Datura Path where he was buried with his wife who had been buried December 7, 1939.

James William Tivey was born on June 18, 1868 in Needham, Massachusetts as the first child of Edward and Deatlor Marion Tivey. There is some mention of him being born in New York City but the birth was recorded in Needham and I assume the reference to New York City is false or possibly he could have been born while on the move from Germantown, Pennsylvania, north! James is first recorded as a Shoemaker in Lynn, Massachusetts in 1888 at the age of 20 years. He was the first of the family to leave the Newton-Needham area with the rest of the family following a year later. He boarded by himself at 35 Cook Street in Lynn until he was married to Isabella K. Butterick of Toronto Ontario, Canada born there on September 12, 1871, daughter of Charles F. and Isabella Jane Butterick. The marriage took place in Lynn, Massachusetts on April 22, 1890 and James and Isabella took up residence at 58 Marianna Street in Lynn.
Their first child William Herbert was born in that house on February 15, 1891. James and young family moved quite a bit in the early years of marriage. His next move was to 15 Mt. Pleasant Place in Lynn in 1892 where their second child Isabella B . was born on July 1892 and died their October 11, 1892. Then he moved on to 20 Johnson Street in 1893. He is listed as a stock fitter during this period. He is listed as a rubber weaver and continued to live at 11 Broad Street Place until 1898 when the family moved to 145 New Chatham Street which was later renamed Eutaw Avenue. James worked as a weaver at 8 Market Street and in 1903 worked as a weaver at 7 Munroe Street Lynn, Massachusetts. On July 15, 1898 his last child Charles Edward was born at 145 New Chatham Street. In 1905 his wife Isabella was working as a seamstress at the same address as her husband, 7 Munroe Street in Lynn. In 1909 he is listed as working for Curtis and Spindell at 205 Oxford Street in Lynn the same business his Father Edward had been associated with. Isabella worked for the same concern.

In 1914 due to a severe drinking and personality problem James left the family residence on Eutaw Avenue and boarded at 100 Eutaw Avenue in Lynn. He was finally divorced in 1916 or 1917 and moved to 49 Goldthwart Street and in 1918 is listed at 110 Union Street, Lynn, Massachusetts. By 1920 he is listed as an elastic stocking knitter for Curtis and Spindell at 205 Oxford Street with residence at No 11 " The Arcade" an apartment house. His wife during this time lived in the same house at 145 Eutaw Avenue and continued to work as a seamstress. Around 1921 she moved in with her son Charles Edward and Helen Tivey at 158 Eutaw Avenue Lynn, Massachusetts. In 1924 Charles moved with his mother to 9 Goodrich Street in Lynn. In 1928 James was living at 10 Olive Street and his wife was living with son Edward Charles at 396 Chatham Street Lynn, Massachusetts.
James's problem with drink continued all through Prohibition until it ended as did the life of James. He had been having problems with the police since 1906. It is stated that he would break into the house of his wife and son, and steal supplies to sell in order to buy liquor. A story is told by his son Charles Edward that he with his brother William Herbert found their father James drunk in Meadow Park (present location of Lynn English High School in Lynn). They loaded him into a wagon they had borrowed and drove him all the way to Topsfield, Massachusetts where they dropped him beside the road with hopes that he would never return. They drove back at a moderate rate pace and while going past the Park to return the wagon, there was their father setting on a bench drunker than ever. He had beaten them back to town.
Son William Herbert told me of a conversation he once had with his father James. James told him that when he was sober he had a job and seemed all right but when he started drinking he did not even work and would stay drunk for three months at a time. His wife Isabella had to go to the bar room and have someone going in bring James out so she could get some money from him. The police got tired of arresting him at Meadow Park so they would bring him home to his sons house and leave him by the back door. James also got mixed up with a group of fellows at the dump and started fermenting alcohol from garbage and this not only got him in a lot of trouble during Prohibition but lead to his death of Alcohol Poisoning.

Additional Notes by Richard Herbert Tivey, Great Great Nephew of Audrey - (2005) "Audrey remembered very little when I spoke to her on Janaury 4 1966 at her one room apartment on Union Street, Lynn, Massachusetts She said that she had never corresponded with family members and that when growing up, children were to be seen and not heard. Her mother once told her that she had to go to Gettysburg to get her husband Edward's clothing on which was a notes from him as there were no time for goodbyes during the war. She said her father was in the elastic stocking business in England and brought information with him when he came to this country before the war or at the time of the Civil war. He may have had a patent for some machinery to manufacture elastic stockings He had a wooden leg as his was removed in a railroad accident She had no pictures or other pertinent information pertaining to the family."

Notes for Percy A Smith:
The Pittsburgh Press, 8th November 1928 - Front Page - 15 KILLED IN FACTORY BLAST | SEARCH RUINS OF PLANT FOR MORE BODIES | Rescue Crews Believe Death List Will Be Increased | Probe is Started | Seek Cause for Mystery Spark Which Ignited Celluloid. | By FRANK MURPHY, United Press Special Writer.
Lynn, Mass. Nov, 8 - Fifteen persons, including a mother and five children were burned to death here today when a box toe factory was wrecked by a mysterious explosion.
The mother and children lost their lives when a flare of flame enveloped their nearby home. All the other victims were at work in the plant.
Scores of employees were trapped when, without warning, a chemical exploded, ignited a large quantity of celluloid, bew out the walls, and brought down the roof of the Preble Box Toe factory down upon them.
There was a chance the fatallity list might be increased, either through the death of some of the injured at Lynn hospital or through discovery of more bodies in the smoldering debris. Three employees were reported missing shortly before noon, and the ruins were being searched. The blast set fire to four nearby dwellings.
|FLEE BURNING HOMES| Many ran from their homes, some of which already had caught fire. The box toe factory, of cement construction was ruined and from the smoldering debris came cries of injured. A general fire alarm was sounded. Special police details and ambulances were called. Firemen were able to extinguish the flames quickly and saved several houses which had caught fire. | SIX OF FAMILY DIES | The family of Harry Blaney was hardest hit by the blast. Mrs Blaney, four daughters, Thelma, aged 13, Helen, aged 7, Vivian and Harriet and a son, Arthur, all were fatally burned when the blast set fire to their nearby home.

The father and two other sons, Harry Jr and Norman were reported near death at Lynn Hospital this afternoon.
Two other daughters, Lilian and Ella, probably escaped death only because they were going out the rear door, en route to school, at the time of the explosion. |PROBE IS BEGUN | State and local authorities started an investigation. It appeared probable an inflammable chemical used by the Preble Co. was responsible and that the presence of a large quantity of celluloid caused the fire. A cigaret in the hands of a workman was blamed by employees for the explosion. Investigators were told that a worker, in violation of factory rules, was smoking a cigaret just prior to the blast. Scores of persons were working in the Preble factory. Some of the victims were hurled 40 yards and two bodies were found on the sodewalk of Groveland Street. Blocks of cement from the walls of the building were scattered. Nearly half a mile away a woman was so frightened that she plunged from a second-story window of her home and broke both her legs. | THE DEATH LIST | Mrs Harry Blaney, Thelma Blaney, aged 13, Arthur Blaney, Helen Blaney, aged 7, Harriet Blaney, aged 3 months, Alfred Harris, aged 29: Percy Smith, John Wilson: Vivian Blaney, William Clements, John Crowther, aged 20: Lewis Puffer, Charles r Mitchell, aged 22, Everett Lewis, aged 18 and Joseph McCarthy aged 17. | THE INJURED | Injured at the Lynn hospital: James Wright, old-tine Negro-pugilist: Mrs _____Gallagher, _____-McCoy, Harry Blaney, Harry Blaney Jnr, Norman Blaney, Israel Clements, John Coleman, Lewis Rogers.

Leicestershire Priscilla Corah Volume 7a Page 128.

Notes from Nigel Ralph Holmes: Priscilla was the eldest daughter of Sarah Ann and Edward Matchett. She was born before her parents were married, therefore when she was baptised on 25th July 1880 at Osgathorpe church. Her surname is recorded as Priscilla Matchett Cawrah - daughter of Sarah Ann. She met and married Ernest Hutchinson, a miner, they lived at Brook House, Hermitage road, Coalville. Opposite the Hermitage Hotel public House which was pulled down in the 1960's; Priscilla was a coal higgler, the only woman ever known to take a horse and cart to Whitwick colliery yard to collect coal and sell it. She handled the job as well as any man even though her frame was small, she was very thin. She was seen everywhere with her barrow delivering coal from her horse and cart, she must have been one of the last to sell coal from a cart. Later, she invester in a lorry to continue her business. Her youngest son was in partnership with her and he would drive the lorry. Before long she bought a second lorry and then another, her business was growing, Locals thought she was a marvellous woman. She was 84 years old when she died and is buried in Whitwick cemetery beside her parents family grave. Priscilla left her business and house to her sons, when they retired her grandsons continued to run what was then a prosperous haulage business. Her descendents still live at Brook House and run the haulage business (2005)

Her husband Ernest was a pleasant man, he was involved in the rescue of the miners trapped in the Whitwick Pit Disaster. Later he had an accident in the pit which led to a metal plate being fitted in hid head. he was well known locally for playing the piano in the local public houses, even though he suffered with several headaches after the accident. Customers would buy him beer which did not help his health. Many years later he commited suicide, he was found hanging in the outside toilet. Until the inquest many people were not aware he had been involved in an accident.

If your Colin Tivey was the man I'm thinking of, all I can say is that he was a darned good teacher, strict but very fair. I think his bark was worse than his bite. I think he was in intelligence during WW2, & had something to do with the Nuremberg trials. He also won the Chevalier D'honneur, I think, & after war sevice returned to the Grammar School to carry on with his French teaching. - Colin Barsby former Pupil (contact through Genes Reunited)

"NURSE CHILD" A nursechild was a standard term for an infant foster child. It is not necessarily the case that a nursechild was being nursed (breastfed) by a woman in the same household. The nursechild may have been fostered out for a number of reasons, such as the loss of one or both parents, or the parents being unable to look after the child due to reduced circumstances." They were usually children who had ended up in the workhouse for whatever reason. (VALDA, Rootschat)

NOTE: I have looked up this family throughout the census and cannot make any connection to the Tivey Family. William Barnes was a Frame Work Knitter and has no Connection to Isaac, His wife Esther is also born Notts and her parents are Irish. They could have been related to Tryphena Taylor's side of the family but this is yet to be established. It is tought at this point that Isaac paid the Barnes family to look after Mary whilst he was away selling fabric as a travelling agent. Jan Tivey 2008

The rest of Mary's siblings were with relatives in the 1881 census, her father Isaac is a lodger in Plymouth Occupation Agent; he re-married in

From Harlequin Books Newsbeat 2004 Fall Issue: St Petersburg, Florida resident Lena Dionnne, celebrated her 111th birthday in June 2004. When asked to what she attributes her remarkable longevity, Lena replied that she owes it all to eating three square meals a day and reading five Harlequin romance novels per week - without glasses yet! Born in Massachusetts in 1893, Lena singled our Harlequin books for their thrilling stories - "Its got to be exciting or I won't read it"

From:

KENNETH CITY -- Lena Dionne reads about three or four Harlequin romance novels a week.

Such titles as A Woman of Innocence, Expose and The Sheik and the Vixen attest to her passion. They sit on a bookshelf in her room at the Colonial Care Center, along with a pocket-sized Bible.

"I love to read any kind of book," said Mrs. Dionne, who celebrated her 109th birthday at the nursing home last week. "It keeps my mind going. I don't remember how long I've been reading them, but they are getting racier."

Mrs. Dionne, born Lena Tivey on June 14, 1893 in Lynn, Mass., had an early birthday bash Thursday with about 100 people, including nursing home residents and staff and about 20 members of her church, Clearview United Methodist of St. Petersburg.

"Lena is a remarkable person," said Nina Allen, 84, a church member. "I understand she reads her books without glasses."

Mrs. Dionne, dressed in a teal two-piece dress and pearls, had an explanation. "I used to wear glasses, but they bothered me," she said. "So now I read without them."

As remarkable as it is that Mrs. Dionne has lived to 109, statistics show it is not that unusual to live beyond 100 anymore.

Steve Whitaker, an analyst with the Florida Department of Health's vital statistics office, said the U.S. Census of April 2000 indicated there were 90 women and 55 men in Florida aged 110 or more. Of those, six men and 11 women lived in Pinellas County.

"The Census stops counting at 110, so they just say 110-plus," Whitaker said.

Linda Messerschmidt, a Social Security field representative, said that as of December 2000, there were 2,340 people over the age of 100 receiving Social Security in the state of Florida.

Mrs. Dionne couldn't remember if she ever received Social Security. She did recall that she worked in a factory in downtown St. Petersburg.

"I used to repair black patent leather shoes," she said Thursday. "I had to fill in the cracks and then pack them in boxes. I don't remember when I retired, but it seems like I worked forever."

Lena Tivey's parents were from England and they settled in Lynn, Mass., where they both worked in a factory. Her father was a weaver and her mother a seamstress. She had an older brother and a younger brother and sister, but she's the only survivor.

She met and married Billy Dionne when she was 16.

She doesn't remember when she and her husband moved to Florida from Massachusetts or when he died, "but we bought a little house. Billy grew vegetables and I had flowers," she said.

She also remembered that there were dirt roads and they had a horse and buggy at first. Then Mrs. Dionne learned how to drive.

"It was a black Ford," she said. "But I walked to work because Billy didn't want me to drive. He really wanted me to stay home."

The Dionnes had one son, George, who died in his 40s. His widow, Marion, 88, also lives at the Colonial Care nursing home. They didn't have any children.

"She looks good for that age," Marion Dionne said of her mother-in-law at the party.

The elder Mrs. Dionne seemed to enjoy herself, joining in on some of the songs and pushing herself around in her wheelchair to chat with friends.

Lena Dionne's secret to long life?

"Be sure to eat a good breakfast," she said. "I just love food. I like to eat any time."

She never smoked but admitted to drinking a beer now and then. "I only had a beer when I was home. My husband had a keg of beer in the cellar."

-- Times researchers Kitty Bennett and Connie Humburg contributed to this report.

Since 1893
When Lena Dionne was born Lena Tivey, Grover Cleveland was in his second term as president of the United States. Since then, there have been 19 other presidents.

Orville and Wilbur Wright flew the first machine-driven airplane in 1903, when Lena Tivey turned 10.

At 16, Lena Tivey married Billy Dionne. She was 27 when American women got the right to vote in 1920. "You bet I registered to vote. I even marched," she said.

Mrs. Dionne was 36 when the Great Depression started in 1929.

Mrs. Dionne has lived through at least seven major wars, including the Spanish-American War of 1898, two World Wars and the current war in Afghanistan.

Charles was a really handsome man (and from personal experience one of the nicest men I have known) He went to fight for king and country and whilst he was away Gladys realised that her clandestine nights of passion had resulted in a baby which was to become my mother-in-law.. She was registered as Prudence May Hall Tivey and weighed in at 2 lbs., she was incubated in the plate warming part of the cast iron range and fed through a fountain pen tube. On his return from the great war they married and as all C.G.A. siblings had grown and gone, her being the youngest, they lived with her parents. Eventually they managed to get a home of their own with Charlie being a lace maker he was always in work. When they did leave they left Pru behind to be brought up by Charles & Ann. Then Charles Eric (known as Eric) was born in 1921 and that according to Pru sealed her fate. She was then brought up by her grandparents whom she adored. Eric was killed on active service in September 1945 after peace was declared. Gladys until her dying day never got over it. I have in my possession dozens of letter he wrote to his mother he was indeed a loving and loved son. He was also a very clever young man being the youngest man to gain his wings. He was pilot officer 199321 RAF. Shortly after his death his promotion to flight lieutenant came through, he is buried in Karachi India (now Pakistan). Prudence went on to marry Herbert Woods a man 18 years her senior. It didnt work out and after three sons Terry 1941 Trevor 1942 and Robert 1943 they separated.

Notes for Dorothy Love:
Dorothy (my mother) was the youngest child. Her father died three days before her 7th birthday, (leaving Annie to raise four minors & an invalid by herself). There was not much available during her childhood; her mother was able to get a job as a cook in a town school, but that caused part of her widow's pension to be withheld. When Dorothy was 17 World War 2 started, and as it progressed, single women were also required to register for the draft. Since she had 3 brothers serving in the armed forces and a widowed mother with an invalid child, Dorothy was not inducted into the army, but was instead given a "man's job" to free him up for military service. She worked for the electricity board, collecting coins from electric meters, which was the way to get electrical service in those days. After the war, Dorothy married John Webb and had two children. Jobs were scarce in this post-war time, so they decided to emigrate to Canada, invited by John's aunt who had emigrated there years earlier. Canada did not hold any good jobs, so Dorothy's Uncle Joe Tivey sponsored them to come to New Jersey, USA. There, John was able to find work in the construction industry, finally in home improvement companies. Dorothy & John moved to Hawthorne, NJ where they remained. Dorothy died of a stroke in May 2006, after a

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS - Rhode Island 11 May 1960 " FOUR BOUND OVER IN 'VEDIMAR' BREAK- "Two men, the wife of one of them, and another woman, waived preliminary examination and were bound over to Superior Court when they appeared before Judge Arthur J Sullivan in District Court this morning on charges of breaking and entering 'Vedimar' estate of Willian deForest Manice Jr on Harrison Avenue.

Marvin F Griffin, 25, of the USS Arcadia; Charles R Tivey 25, of the Naval Station; Elizabeth Hueber, 21, and Claudette R Tivey, all residents of Forest Park Mobile Homes in Middletown, are expected to be tried in Superior Court at the currents Session. "

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS - Rhode Island 12 May 1960 "ESTATE RAIDERS SENTENCES DEFFERED" "The state in Superior Court yesterday afternoon recommended a defferred sentence for each one of four persons charged with breaking into 'Vedimar', the Willium deF. Manice Jr, estate on Harrison Ave.

Asst Att Gen Raymond Pettine narrated the circumstances involved in the break in the charges against Marvin F Griffin, 25, of the USS Arcadia and Charles R Tivey, 25, of the Naval Station; and against Elizabeth Huebner, 21, and Claudette R Tivey, 20 both of Forest Park for Mobile Homes in Middletown.

Pettine said it was an unusual case involving four heretofore reputable persons and - he noted- that the incredible thing was that they went back to the estate three different times to remove goods. In Stern voice Judge Joseph R Weisberger demanded to know from the two sailors; the reasons behind the break ins.

They replied that idle curiosity first took them into the house and said they became overwhelmed with the furnishings.

Jusdge Weisberger told them that they could easily be held on charges of burglary which carried a sentence up to life imprisonment. He challenged the four to prove that their conduct during the break-in was not typical of them and siad that the deferred sentence will give them the opportunity of proving to the court that the crime was a mistake in their life patterns. "it is your God-given inheritance to know the difference between right and wrong" said Judge Weisberger as he placed the four on defferred sentences.

Flo had a lifelong love of travel, especially to her special place, Hawaii. She and Eddie built a vacation home on Lake Winnipesaukee's Long Island, where they eventually retired. She enjoyed gardening, cooking for friends and family, playing a lively game of cards, and making beautiful hand-knitted gifts. She especially loved her faithful dog, Kaiser, and her mischievous tiger cat, Woodie.

While in Moultonborough, she was a parishioner of St. Charles Borromeo Church and was also active in the Moultonborough Women's Club. She was a former parishioner of St. Francis of Assisi Church in Manchester.

Flo's greatest love in life was her family, both immediate and extended. She and Ed raised four children, Gary Tivey of Albuquerque, N.M., Karen (Jeff) Banks of Citra , Fla., Cheryl Tivey and her husband, Alen Yen, of Beverly, Mass., and Pamela (Jonathan) Starr of Manchester. She especially enjoyed her role as doting grandmother to Harison (Carley) Starr, Hayden Starr, Dane Hoffman, Langston Starr, Travis Hoffman, Julia Starr, Channing Starr, Griffin Starr and Miya Tivey Yen. She was predeceased by seven siblings and is survived by a sister, Della Massanotti, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and a brother, Roland Gagne of Texas. She had numerous nieces and nephews, as well as great-nieces and -nephews, that she held dear. Among those, her nieces Connie Gaiero and Carmen Thibeault were especially close friends and travel companions.

Flo's family would like to express their profound and heartfelt thanks to the Merrimack Valley Hospice House, where she was showed such kindness and care in her time of need. Please consider honoring her generous and loving heart with a gift in her name to Merrimack Valley Hospice House in lieu of flowers;
