News Article June 18th 1929 - Amsterdam Daily Democrat and Recorder: FEAR OF LOSING HEALTH, FONDA WOMAN SHOTS HERSELF; Mrs Willard Doak, Former resident of Amsterdam, Commits Suicide While Husband is in Amsterdam Attending Meeting of Peace Officers. Willard: - "I am afraid I am losing my health.. ANNIE"

Leaving this note for her husband, Mrs Willard Doak lay down upon a davenport in her home at Fonda Wednesday night and shot herself in the right temple, the body being found by her husband at 11;30 o'clock after his return from a meeting of the Montgomery County Justices and Peace Officers association in Amsterdam. Mr Doak is a deputy sheriff. Mrs Doak was formerly Miss Annie Underwood of Amsterdam and her husband the son of Samuel Doak for years caretaker at the Odd fellows temple. Beyond some slight illness now and then, such as is suffered by most people and an attack of the flu last spring, Mrs Doak had not suffered from illness or breakdown, and had not lately been under a physician's care. She had appeared in her usual mental condition Wednesday and had seemed in good spirits. At 9 O'clock, Samuel Doak, he father-in-law, and his family stooped at the Doak home in Fonda for a short visit. Mr Doak was in the front yard of her home at 9.30 o'clock. Some time after that hour, likely at about 10 o'clock, she put her 3 children to bed. These are Samuel aged 12, James 7, and Elizabeth 5, They sleep on the second floor. Presumably, after they were asleep. Mrs Doak came down stairs, lay down upon the davenport after writing the note and shot herself. William Doak earlier in the evening had come to Amsterdam to attend the meeting of peace officers, he returned with deputy Sheriff Edward Sheehan and Sheriff Hodge. They were delayed on the way back by an accident a little west of the city line of Amsterdam, arriving at Mr Doak's house at about 11:50 o'clock. He entered his home, the others proceeding to the sheriff's office. They had scarcely arrived before they received a call to come back to the Doak home. Sheriff Hodge and Deputy Sheehan responded, finding Mrs Doak dead on the davenport, a bullet hole in her right temple and a 32. calibre revolver lying close to her right hand. The note had lain on a table in the room. Dr J Howard Crosby, acting as coroner's physician in the absence of the coroner, stated that in his opinion, the woman had been dead for at least an hour and a half when he saw her.

1915 Death recorded in the Leicester District of Leicestershire, September Quarter, Volume 7a Page 190: Actual death date is taken from her husband William Maxfield's WWI Attestation Record. There are papers which state that Selina Drowned. It seems that Selina died in tragic circumstances -- Her son Herbert had fallen into the icy canal in January 1915 and subsequently drowned, her husband William was away in France with the 2nd Warwickshire Regiment and it seems that Selina could not cope with her son's death, She tragically took her own life in the same canal as her son died some 8 months later;

Further newspaper reports suggest that a second person Joseph Rogers, a shoe hand also drowned with her and the reports state that they had been living together since July 1915 whilst her husband was a soldier, away at the front.
